

Motorcyclist hurt as two cars race in RAK

Published: 00:00 March 2, 2010

Ras Al Khaimah: An Afghan motorcyclist suffered serious injuries yesterday after becoming trapped between two cars that were racing on Al Jolan street.

A senior officer from the RAK Traffic and Licensing Department said that the 45-year-old victim identified as A.A. was hit by an Arab who was racing an Emirati driving a 4x4.

The 23-year-old Arab and the 33-year-old Emirati were racing in a crowded area.

The Afghan victim was hit and landed on the pavement.